ABOUT US

Beyond Korea, a Customized Inner Beauty Brand

BOTO is committed to promoting natural beauty through nourishing the body. Our journey began in 2007 when CEO Jay Kim founded the company in South Korea. Since then, we have grown to become the No.1 Korean beauty brand in the world, specializing in inner beauty products.

We are passionate about creating products that work in harmony with your body and respond to its unique needs. By developing products based on the needs of our customers in each region, we are expanding our reach beyond Korea and towards the global market.

Our local customized approach allows us to create products that are tailored to the unique needs of our customers around the world. We use the latest research and technology to develop innovative and effective products that provide real health benefits.

Thank you for choosing BOTO as we journey towards global success and bringing our products to customers all over the world.
